COCONUT INGREDIENTS

Coconut products are at the core of our business. With strong partnerships with specialist producers, we are uniquely positioned to offer a comprehensive range of coconut ingredients for all applications. We pride ourselves on being the ultimate "One Stop Shop" for all your coconut needs on the Island of Ireland.

Global Coconut Demand (2014 - June 2024)

Global coconut demand up to June 2024.

The demand shows a continued increase, reaching approximately 23.6 million metric tons by mid-2024.

Some common coconut-derived ingredients we offer:

1. COCONUT MILK & CREAM

Coconut milk and cream have become immensely popular, with demand spanning various sectors of the food industry. They are widely used in ready meal production, sauces, marinades, dips, and dressings. Additionally, significant quantities are now being utilized in the beverage industry.

Our 68.20 Liquid Aseptic Milk contain no additives or stabilisers and are fully homogenised, providing a perfect blend during food manufacturing.

2. DESICCATED COCONUT

We keep sizeable stocks of fine and medium desiccated coconut, which also can be sweetened or toasted. All options are perfect for bakery items, cakes, and biscuit production, and are increasingly popular in savory dishes as well. We currently supply:

- 60.39 Fine desiccated Coconut SO2 Free 25KG
- 61.39 Medim Dessicated Coconut \(SO2 Free\) - 25KG

3. CREAMED COCONUT SQUARES

This is a specialist coconut ingredient which has been developed and can be delivered in a convenient format for handling and use in a manufacturing environment. Through a unique manufacturing process, the product is formed into uniform, free-flowing, squares that melt evenly during use. This product can be the most cost-effective way of putting coconut fat into both savoury and sweet products. Here are some creamed coconut square ingredients we offer:

- 68.05 Flaked Coconut Cream Squares -14KG
- 68.46 Flaked Coconut Cream Squares SO2 Free M&S -14KG

4. COCONUT FLOUR

Coconut Flour is a gluten-free flour made entirely from coconut, rich in fiber and a good source of protein. Our Coconut Flour undergoes a unique milling process to ensure it remains free-flowing and easy to work with for both large and small-scale users. With 65% fat content, our coconut flour delivers a robust flavor for both sweet and savory dishes.
